

Provisional Programme

Forensic Psychiatry Research Society Meeting, 21 May 2019

Seminar Room, University of Oxford Department of Psychiatry, Warneford Hospital, Oxford OX3 7JX

09:30 – 10:00	Tea and registration
10:00 – 10:30	Feasibility study of a violence risk assessment tool in general psychiatry (OxMIV)	Dr Daniel Whiting University of Oxford
10:30 – 11:00	Preliminary risk data of European risk assessment study (EUVIORMED)	Giovanni de Girolamo IRCCS Fatebenefratelli, Brescia, Italy
11:00 – 11:30	Morning tea
11:30 – 12:30	Survey data on forensic psychiatric practice in 5 European countries	Marco Picchioni King's College, London
12:30 – 13:00	Diversion for young offenders from police custody	Professor Julie Parkes University of Southampton
13:00 – 14:00	Lunch
14:00 – 14:30	25 year outcome study of patients admitted to the State Hospital, Carstairs	Professor Lindsay Thomson University of Edinburgh
14:30 – 15:00	Outcome measures in forensic mental health	Dr Howard Ryland University of Oxford
15:00 – 15:15	Afternoon tea
15:15 – 15:45	Post-traumatic stress disorder in a male remand prison population: prevalence and impact on institutional behaviours	Emma Facer-Irwin King's College, London
15:45 – 16:15	tbc
16:15 – 16:30	FRPS business and next meeting

Getting here: We strongly advise you to come by public transport. A taxi from the train station will take 20 minutes, or there is a direct bus (4 / 4A / 4B / 4C) from just outside the station to Warneford Hospital. If you are coming from London, the X90 and Oxford Tube buses stop at Oxford Brookes, which is a 5 minute walk away. Parking is extremely limited and you will need to pay. For more information about parking please see:

<http://www.oxfordhealth.nhs.uk/about-us/car-parking>

Finding us: The department is located in the back of the Warneford Hospital campus, behind the main hospital entrance. The campus is easy to find on google, but once you get inside the campus it can be tricky. Please see attached map. From the main entrance, follow the road around to the left and then again as it curves to the right. The department is on your right towards the end of the road.